Alumni role in the Institution

Maintaining good relationship with alumni over time is crucial to the success of educational institutions. At St Joseph's, alumni play multifaceted role in the academic and co-scholastic activities of the college.

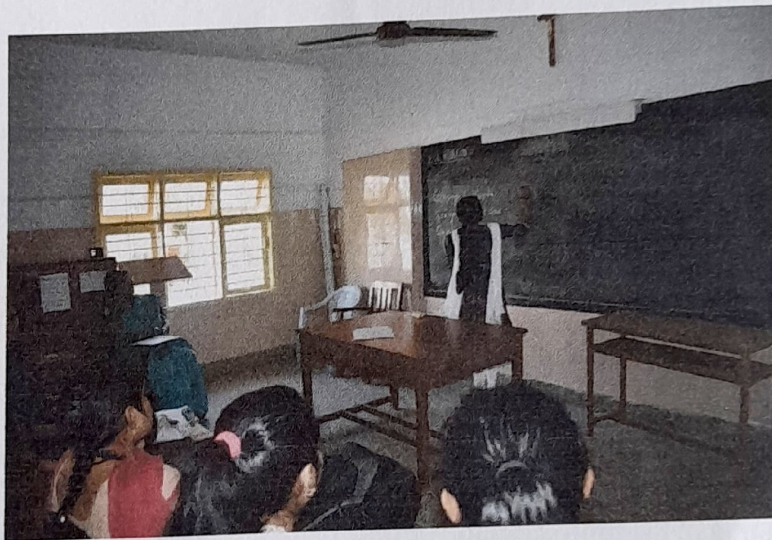

1. Alumni member Dr. Venkatraju KAS, Asst. Commissioner of Mysore served as the Chief Guest for Student Council inauguration programme.

2. Mr. Ronald Goveas, Principal of St. Philomena's High School was the Chief Guest during Art Exhibition.

3. Our alumni Ms. Tanuja gave a demonstration lesson during micro teaching and Ms. Shampa took class for Biology students and guided them during micro teaching.

4. Principals/ Subject Teachers of practice teaching schools:
Many of our alumni are working as Principals and subject teachers in various schools. They orient, guide and motivate our teacher trainees during their practice teaching sessions.
